Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: Discussed adding clarity to the independent claims. Specifically the weight and magnitude being based on the task genre and representative stylistic attribute instead of merely the assigning of the weight and magnitude being based on the task genre and representative stylistic attribute. Also added language of what seemed to be intended in the last prior response to the office where the first and second active computer tasks and plurality of text items are different from each other. The applicant clarified to the examiner that the active computer tasks are not intended to read on an active computer programs. Also discussed Claim 40 and how it appears to have missed being canceled like its similar claims (e.g. 52, 61, etc.) have been..
